

Design Clinicals' MedsTracker® Receives AHA Endorsement

Design Clinicals
Healthcare IT solutions that work

KEY BENEFITS OF DESIGN CLINICALS' MEDSTRACKER

- Exceptionally high physician adoption rates, with some clients reporting greater than 90%
- Improves patient understanding/compliance with their medications
- Increases operational efficiency and data accuracy resulting in enhanced patient safety and outcomes
- Drastically reduces admission/transfer/discharge times
- Integrates with all major HIS and ED software systems
- Full clinical alerts for drug interactions, allergies, duplicate therapies, and incomplete entries

Medication reconciliation can be an unwieldy process for providers when caring for patients. From point of admission to discharge, medications must be reconciled each step of the way. MedsTracker from Design Clinicals is a powerful web-based tool that automates medication management enterprise-wide and improves workflow across the continuum of care. Meeting all compliance regulations, MedsTracker enhances patient safety and outcomes, and unlike other offerings in the market, offers robust scope and functionality delivered through a user-friendly interface. Designed by a physician in a hospital setting, MedsTracker integrates with existing IT systems, improving data flow and communication between the physician, nurse, and pharmacist. Design Clinicals' MedsTracker received impressively high marks for the company's unparalleled combination of service and functionality.

AHA SIGNATURE DUE DILIGENCE PROCESS™

AHA Solutions consults hospital executives and administrators, policy makers, consultants and its advisory committees to identify the operational issues facing the nation's hospitals.

In collaboration with these organizations, AHA Solutions sets strategy, determines selection criteria against market need and assesses relevant products and services through the AHA Signature Due Diligence Process™. This process provides in-depth understanding of the respective marketplace and allows for a deep financial, organizational and product evaluation of endorsement candidates.

When a product or service and the vendor behind it emerges, demonstrating outstanding commitment to health care, dedication to hospitals in their pursuit of excellence and leadership in all selection criteria, AHA proudly awards its exclusive endorsement.

When hospitals select an AHA-Endorsed product or service, they can be confident it has met AHA's highest standards.
